Focus Your Passion at the School of Art
MA, PhD | Art & Visual Culture Education

The School of Art at the University of Arizona offers a rich and diverse environment for both graduate and undergraduate students. The school is deeply committed to fostering a community of creative thinkers and makers who are engaged with the world around them.

Graduate Programs
Graduate students benefit from multiple academic and institutional partnerships at the School of Art. Our partnerships are designed to meet the needs of our students and faculty, ensuring they have access to the resources and opportunities they need to thrive.

Facilities
The School of Art is equipped with a range of facilities that provide a wealth of co-curricular activities and events. These include:

- Individual Artist Studios: Lavish, private spaces for students and faculty to work, with cabinets to lock and store materials.
- Digital Print Studio: State-of-the-art equipment for digital printing, 24-hour access, and a range of facilities for creative expression.
- Ceramic Shell Facility & Metal Casting Foundry: A wax ceramic shell facility and metal casting foundry, offering advanced techniques in sculptural work.
- Relief and Alternative Printmaking: A variety of printmaking techniques, including intaglio, monoprinting, polymer plates, polyester plates, and monoprinting.
- Sculpture: A range of contemporary resources and cutting-edge technology, including digital printmaking services.
- Book Art and Letterpress Lab: A space for book art and letterpress, offering traditional and digital printing techniques.

Funding
Funding opportunities are available to support students in their studies. This includes:

- Assistantship Funding: Guaranteed 3 years of full funding through Graduate Assistantships and other forms of aid, incoming students are guaranteed 3 years of full funding.
- Grants, Tuition Waivers, Fellowships: In addition to the university, Southern Arizona serves as an arts mecca, providing a wonderland of unique arts experiences, a rich cultural landscape, and breathtaking natural environments that never fail to inspire.

Recent Visiting Artists & Scholars
The School of Art welcomed a range of distinguished artists and scholars in recent years, including:

- Chen • Clifton Meador
- Lyle Ashton Harris • Paul Bolin • Daniel Kojo • Lynda Roscoe Hartigan • Amos Kennedy • Aaron Draplin • Julie Tran • Okwui Enwezor • Lin + Lam • Jaimey Hamilton • Bruce Yonemoto • Liz Cohen • Dipti Desai • Jason • Ursula von Rydingsvard • Jean Shin • Amelia Jones • John Tagg • Kevin Tavin • Kay Lawrence • Tam Van Peljhan • Josiah McElheny • Matthew Coolidge • Helen & Newton Harrison • Lucy Lippard • Ken Gonzales-Day • Erika Doss • Lucy Raven • Susan Meiselas • Andrea Zittel • Beatriz Colomina • Charles Garoian • Marko Raul Cabra • Ila Sheren • Dinh Q. Lê • John Divola • Kimsooja • Xaviera Simmons • Marcos Ramirez ERRE • Stephen Carpenter II • Basma Alsharif • Lisa Sanditz • Ricardo Dominguez • Dylan Miner • Srimoyee Mitra • Alejandro Cartegena • Kate Mondloch • Hasan M. Elahi • Afruz Amighi • Steve Kurtz • Alan Braddock • B. Mark McKnight • Wafaa Bilal • Alfredo Jaar • Jordana Moore Saggese • Andres Hernandez • Michael Rakowitz •

Applying
For more information on how to apply to the School of Art, visit the official website at UArizonaSoA. Contact artinfo@cfa.arizona.edu or call 520-621-2955 for assistance.

Partnerships
The School of Art encourages interdisciplinary work and draws upon rich social, cultural, and natural environments that never fail to inspire. This includes partnerships with the University of Arizona Museum of Art (UAMA) and the Arizona Museum of Contemporary Arts (MOCA), providing opportunities for exhibiting and presenting groundbreaking research and exhibitions. The School of Art also maintains collaborations with the College of Architecture, Planning, and Public Service, the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences, and departments in the College of Education. These partnerships are designed to meet the needs of our students and faculty.