Translations

Tant que vivrai

Translation by Lawrence Rosenwald

As long as I live in my prime,

I shall serve the mighty king of Love

In deeds, in words, in songs, in harmonies.

That king made me languish a while;

But afterwards he made me rejoice,

Since now I have the love of the sweet-bodied beauty.

In her friendship is my trust,

Her heart is mine, mine hers.

Away with sadness, long live gladness!

Since there are so many good things in love.

When I seek to serve and honor her,

When I seek to adorn her name with my words,

When I see and visit her ---

Her enviers only gossip.

But our love doesn't last any less long for that;

The wind carries their gossip and more away.

Despite their envy, I shall serve her

And sing of her all my life.

She is the first, she is the last,

Whom I have served and shall serve.

Locus Iste

This place was made by God,

a priceless sacrament;

it is without reproach.
