

About the Bands

New Horizons Music Programs provide entry points to music making for adults, including those with no musical experience at all and those who were active in school music programs but have been inactive for a long period. The Tucson New Horizons Band is open to adults near the age of 50 and over and meets weekly on Sunday afternoons.

UA Outreach Honor Band is open to students in grades 6 through 9. Families can register for auditions and find out more information at outreachband.music.arizona.edu. UA Outreach Honor Band rehearses on Saturday mornings throughout the semester and proudly partners young student musicians with UA music majors to offer specialized instruction on each instrument.

About the Conductor

Matthew L. Williams is an assistant professor of music education at the University of Arizona. He teaches courses in undergraduate and graduate music education, advises graduate theses and dissertations, and coordinates the Outreach Honor Band and Tucson New Horizons Band. Prior to arriving at the University of Arizona, Dr. Williams taught instrumental music education at the University of Delaware.

Dr. Williams's research interests include music preference, preservice music teacher preparation, and music perception and cognition. He has presented sessions and research at state and national conferences including the National Association for Music Education National Conference, the Society for Music Teacher Education Symposium, and the Desert Skies Symposium on Research in Music Education. His work has been published in UPDATE: Applications of Research in Music Education, Journal of Band Research, Research Perspectives in Music Education, Florida Music Director, and Bluegrass Music News.

A native of Union, Kentucky, Dr. Williams previously taught band, music theory, music appreciation, and other classes in Kentucky. He holds a Bachelor of Music degree in horn performance and a Bachelor of Music in music education degree from the University of Kentucky, Master of Music degree in music education from Boston University, a Master of Music degree in wind conducting from the University of Louisville, and a Ph.D. in music education from Florida State University.

If you are interested in joining or would like more information about these ensembles, please email Dr. Williams at mlwilliams@email.arizona.edu.

Announcements

- The Tucson New Horizons Band will have both a beginner band and an intermediate band next fall! We welcome anyone who would like to join and is near age 50 or over. Never read music before? Not a problem! Haven't played your instrument in 30 years? Join us! Email Dr. Matthew Williams at mlwilliams@email.arizona.edu if you are interested. We will begin the fall semester in September.
- Fall 2019 registration for UA Outreach Honor Band will be live later this summer. Please register online for the next semester of Outreach Honor Band with auditions in early September by visiting outreachband.music.arizona.edu.
- Thank you to the school band teachers, private teachers, parents, student musicians, UA music education area, UA Bands department, staff and faculty at the Fred Fox School of Music, and the College of Fine Arts for making the Outreach Honor Band a success for the past 26 years!
- Sincerest appreciation is extended to our wonderful Outreach Honor Band staff, comprised mostly of wonderful future music educators studying here at the University of Arizona. We could not do what we do in this honor band without their dedication and expertise!
