

TUCSON BASS JAM

FACULTY DIRECTOR:

Philip Alejo

The University of Arizona

GUEST ARTISTS:

Issac Trapkus

New York Philharmonic

Juan J. García Jiménez

Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México
CEPROMUSIC

The Tucson Bass Jam is an ASTA and University of Arizona sponsored virtual clinic on Zoom for beginning, intermediate, and advanced double bass students, music educators, and community bass players of any age from Southern Arizona.

Registration and Fees:

Tucson Bass Jam will be free of charge in 2021.

Registration: Participants should contact Philip Alejo (palejo@email.arizona.edu) to register. A Zoom link and entry code will be sent to every registered participant prior to the event.

Virtual Event – Zoom

Sunday, January 17, 2021

1:00 - 5:00 p.m.

FREE ADMISSION

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS:

1:00 - 1:15 p.m.

Welcome and introductions

1:20 - 2:00 p.m.

Warm-ups with
Philip Alejo (beginner/intermediate)
Juan García (advanced)

2:00 - 2:50 p.m.

New and experimental music
with Juan García

3:00 - 3:55 p.m.

Master class on regional excerpts
with Isaac Trapkus

4:00 - 5:00 p.m.

Master class for UA students
with Isaac Trapkus

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA
COLLEGE OF FINE ARTS

Fred Fox School of Music